

PROPHETICS BASIC TRAINING 101

The Prophet's Spirit (Part One)

The angels from the Great Way speak:

The teaching you will move in drinking will be very strong in the plan to reveal the way a true servant to the Great King will move in the earth. It is the Great King's will that the people are made aware of major details concerning how a true prophet of the One True God shall be seen in the earth.

People look to see if a person can say a few details with accuracy, to label them as a servant of King Jesus. This is very dangerous—to only look for something to be revealed that is in a way to be known due to it already being revealed in the unseen way for any spirit to be able to hear it. This is just as in the natural details: You could read a newspaper and shall be able to say a detail concerning that article that would make it as if you already knew that will.

This is Prophecy Basic Training 101 that we speak with you concerning. Here is how the prophetic works: The Great Way King Jesus has a way to speak a detail from eternity, where there is no time, to then place it into a moving in time, where humans shall be able to move to embrace it. Once the will is released into human planning, it can be heard by any spirit at the Great King's will. This is how the unseen is aware of a detail even before a human would embrace it.

There are many that will be called a prophet just because they can say a few details with accuracy. You know of the detail. The Great Way King Jesus has even made it clear for you to see it, where they will call a person a prophet while the Great Holy Spirit would reveal to you that they truly move as a false prophet.

They even hold the title of prophet; people even call them the title of prophet. You see a video that has them speak a will into a person to make them tremble and cry, yet the Great Holy Spirit tells you they truly are not a true prophet of the Lord Most High. What is the root of this great deception in the Christian churches this day? People would label any who would move in the gift to prophesy as a servant in the office of Prophet.

You will speak a major plan concerning this way of protocol that must be in place to gauge the prophetics in the Church way. People will look to a moving of a way in feeling to say if the anointing is truly present. They would feel if that person has any way to look as if they have something they would need to be delivered from. When will the people stop moving by emotion? When will the people look to drink a true moving in the way in spiritual details, which have nothing to do with emotion and feelings?

When will people stop chasing these false prophets and those who give a “word” for money to move in divination, to sell the Great Holy Spirit for a price? You cannot sell God, referring to the One True God. You can take His Spirit and give it out in a casual way to cause a great anger, where you would need to be dealt with. You can take the people’s money to move as Satan’s workers, where they tell your future for a will in getting your soul or taking your money.

When will the Church way set in place a true gauge in this office of Prophet and not have every person who can barely speak in the gift of prophesying come to the altar to speak what they have no license, no authority to speak? How can the Church way grow in a healthy way when they truly do not know the way to hear the Church Head, who is Christ King Jesus, not the one who is to steward it?

Now, we will move in making some people very angry with you, servant. You will speak out against those false prophets who move to give people a word if they send money. No true servant of the Great Way King Jesus shall move in getting pay to give a message from the One True God. This will is very displeasing to the Great Way King Jesus that any of His workers would go to take money to give His will in their way.

Messages through the Great King’s will are given to move the King’s will into the hearer’s way so they can drink a shift in the plan they move to embrace. The true servant of God must never take money to give a message to a human, a land, a nation, the earth way. It would be displeasing to the Great Way King Jesus, for this is the way Satan's workers move, as in these details. This is truly referring to paying for a word, but this is not concerning taking up an offering to keep the ministry in a way to be maintained.

If I have you visit a church way to give a will to that church gathering, they will freely be able to give to Rain That Heals in the way they give into your work—to be pleasing to the Great Way King Jesus. If they give you money so you can give them a word to speak into the church to do a ministry detail, you will not be given ways to go due to that moving to move in divination. That would move in a plan to bring the Great King's anger against you.

Money should never be used in this work that would make it where you sell you in the office—to give a word over any, even the nations of the world. But many move to do this, where they will give a word if you send in a love offering, and they may give you a token of their appreciation for your gift in that plan. Most who say they are Christians give to various churches, ministries, and other charities based on what they will get in return. They may give to a TV program due to being promised a book or other product. Some have given to those on TV to receive a healing or a special anointing. Some have given so they would be included in that way, to feel a connection with that moving.

Shouldn't there be a way to give without looking for something in return? Is that true giving—to see what you will get in that person's way? What if no incentive was given? Would you still move to give a gift to that person or ministry? In the days of old, people gave gifts to respect the office, not for any incentive. They gave to show a way in honor, to move in pleasing the Great Way King Jesus by His servants, in their way of provision. God has given His servants, based on their sphere and work details, treasures in Heaven for their use in the earthly details.

And this is why a true servant of the Great Way King Jesus, should not have to give a word for his pay. How did prophets of old move in the earth? They were given gifts to show honor to the Great King in His servants being there to bring a true Word from the Throne Room of Heaven. The servant is never greater than the master, and in this case, with a true servant, he or she serves the Way, the Truth, the Life.

Servants have been given a “bad name” due to the current moving of the Church way. There moves in the current Church way, details truly not in the Great King’s will. These will include a moving to make it seem you can be a truly anointed person at the end of a weekend course. Those that do this will even have a way to get a large crowd, by offering a special impartation service, where all can come and receive. It is dangerous, where you will move in drinking a spiritual orgy, not knowing where that person has been, and knowing “anything is fine, based on a feeling” is truly not safe.

A demon can make a person fall out in a way to appear in a weakened state, to lay limp in a trance way. A demon can fake a healing, to give a demonic healing, to make the people believe in a will that is truly false. A demon will take over in a person’s will, to make them feel as if they feel a true moving, with goosebumps and a light feeling. A demon will make a person see visions, to make them think they move in being in a closer way with the One True God.

Servants of Satan have deeply infiltrated the church gatherings, even taking positions as church leaders, and have placed major spells and curses over the people. There even are demons that enable the people to speak in unknown tongues as if they truly moved in the gift of the Holy Spirit. Don’t be deceived in looking for a way in being with a feeling, or a way in natural details, to prove a way is truly God’s will. The only Spirit to move in giving a true gauge will be in the Great Holy Spirit as He reveals His will into a moving detail.

Prophets of the One True God have been birthed into the earth with a special spirit that enables that person to move in being a true prophet. This is truly not the Spirit known as the Great Holy Spirit, who lives in each true Kingdom citizen. The prophet’s spirit makes a person a true servant. “Now, I have seen a few move in this way—to be using the prophet’s spirit, yet they serve Satan. Is this way truly possible?” Yes, due to a person being birthed forth with a prophet’s spirit, whether or not they choose to serve the Great Way King Jesus. There is a major plan in the camp of Satan to place a major deception into the Church way, to have it so the people will move to embrace the false in place of God’s true detail in the way.

People have yet to learn of major key details in prophetics that will shed a great detail on moving with a true prophetic word. Words can shift based on a will in yielding—to come and take a leading will over the previous place in the first detail. God can change His will in any detail based on what is needed to bring the ultimate will into the earth way. People must truly see it. They are looking at a word as written in stone, yet there are details that move into being, to bring this will into the earthly way, to move into being seen. Here is a good example: The Great Way may send you to deliver a message into the earth which you heard in a secret session with Him. You take the message, to give it into the will you were to move in, in a way to move it in the earth in a certain day and time—to move it to be seen in the right timing.

You deliver the will as the Great Way gives it to you, yet that person is not willing to receive it as a true word for their own way. They would choose not to accept it based on what was said and would move to reject it. How can the way be moved on in that person's way when they truly would prefer their way? There must truly be an agreement with the way given in a true detail for your way to be in a way to be seen.

Take the children of Israel: The Great Way willed that they take the Promised Land, yet they were afraid to go and possess it. They chose to rebel against a will given to a true servant of the Great King for that specific people, and because of rebellion, they were given their way instead. Most would say that Moses didn't speak a true word due to it not coming to the natural, where the nation of Israel actually possessed the promise of the One True God. But truly, he did speak the will in a major message, yet the people of the nation chose to do their own way.

You could be given a way to be a servant, yet you must truly yield to speak what the Great Way wills in each detail. It is truly not up to the servant to prove a message is truly God's plan. It is up to the One True God to make it take way. Most prophets are rejected due to what they must say in a true detail that would bring the hearer to a place where they must face a will in bringing a change to their plan that they move to embrace.

Most think true servants will only say a few words or sentences, not knowing that they can speak in major paragraphs, giving the people a full detail, at the Great King's will. How have the Scriptures themselves been given? Are they not all messages? Of course, they are. And as you can see, Scriptures are of great length in reflecting a full will, given to God's servants to speak into the earth so His will shall be seen in the natural way, to move in fully taking shape in the earth.

Let's deal with a true message: Shouldn't they all move in being revealed into the earth? Most will not be able to embrace it—to hear this plan if not for having a full drinking through the Great Way King Jesus by His Great Spirit. God can move to give a will in any detail and then can choose to give a new will over the old will, where the old will, will no longer move to be His will. You have a great example with the old way in covenant, with the plan using earthly animals to move in covering sin. But then God gave a new will—to move in His great blood of the new plan—to move in taking a covering for the sins of all men as they come and drink eternal life through King Jesus.

One would say the old should still be in effect, but it will not have any influence due to the new way being in place. This is a way to move in truly discerning a message from a true servant. They may give a message, and it may change based on a new will given to the servant to give in the King's will. It's just as with the servant taking a death sentence to a great king, yet it was erased in that will, even to a new plan while Isaiah was still in the king's house.

How can this be so, where the Great King will give a will and may then move to change it? You have to see the ultimate will of the message in the first place. So, one would be able to gauge a true servant of the Great King based on that plan that's in effect, having a will for a release into the earth to be seen. This has to be in the natural, where it will move to be seen.

No one can fake being a true servant if the hearer would truly seek the Great King's will in who delivers a will from the King. It is truly not through emotion, nor is it based on if that person gives a good word you truly would like. Move in truly seeking how God has a way to make His will clear. A prophet is enabled to bring the King's will into your way, to be embraced at the leading of the Great Way in each detail.

Prophets will not always say a message to bring you comfort. There may be details that must be dealt with, and the Great King may use His servant to speak His will without any fear. Prophets must be trained to deal with the way a person may take God's message. There must be no fear to bring a will into you. Prophets truly must place God first in their plan and must look to His will in all details.

Prophets work in the realm or sphere of influence as given in the Great Way's orders; and that will determine the level of the message that can be spoken. For example, a prophet may only move in a local church gathering. They would only have a sphere to influence what can bring a way to influence their church building or house. They must move in a way to yield to any level greater over their position, and this way will include yielding to the pastor over the church building.

Prophets lose a great deal of authority in church buildings due to the order given, where they must truly submit to their leader, which is the local church pastor. Some prophets will cover a nation in their plan, to move in spiritual license in influencing the earth in the King's planning; but where they would move in a way to work in a local church house under a church leader, they have to yield in a great deal in their spiritual authority to submit to the order in that church way even if they have once served over a nation, or even many nations.

The prophet's spirit enables you to drink a deep level in communication with King Jesus however He would will. It also enables you to move in deep spiritual realms with the Creator and the unseen who work with you in this major will. There is truly much to speak on concerning a workload given to a true prophet, for it is much deeper than giving a message. Dreams and visions may come to the servant. Figurative movings in the arts may be used as a way to deliver the King's will.

Major warfare in the spirit as gatekeepers or watchmen may be needed. You may also have to be a gauge in the atmosphere to tell if there is a need to detox it from the enemy's detail. Prophets must be in a way to gauge a moving in the prophetic detail to make sure you have a true detail that is truly releasing a will through the Great Way King Jesus.

Prophets on a church way could deter Satanists from infiltrating a church building with a web of destruction. Prophets can come into a dwelling to bring a will in the Great King, to move to speak a reversal of death in that plan. Prophets may be given a plan to anoint a new leader, just as was done in the days of old, with the kings.

People must truly see that a prophet must have a prophet's spirit, as well as a backing in a covenant with the Great Way King Jesus, and be released in full commissioning will to do what they were chosen in that will, given by the Great Way. People must have a way to fully see that humans may say a person is this or that title, but truly, only will the unseen way respect a true spiritual authority delegated to the servant as given by the Great Way King Jesus. Now, if all those who say they serve as prophets truly have no spiritual authority from the Great Way, who then is moving to produce these details to make the nations have a way to give them their attention? Why are masses of people following a word from a one that is truly false?

There is a great spiritual moving needed to bring a true release into the Church way, where they will learn to drink a true detail in the King's will concerning the prophetics as a whole. The old altars must be torn down, and the new altar dedicated only to the Great King must be placed in the Church way. What does it truly mean? A gauge must be placed, where only proven servants give words over church gatherings that may influence the people.

There must be a stop to the spiritual orgies, where people flock to get a word from a moving they know nothing of. There must be a true turning, where those in the Church way listen with their spirit and move to fully change the way they seek to hear from the Great King. There truly must be a shift in church politics, where people are known in spirit as revealed through the Great Way King Jesus, not based on if that person will sway the moving a certain way.

People will take on various character flaws due to being human, but this is not a way to give them free rein to speak over others to cause a spiritual rape or abuse. No one should lay hands on any in a casual way. What will be transferred in laying on of hands by that person who touches you may be a spirit of the demon influence within that person. Now take a look at how church gatherings do this way with their people. They would have a few who may be spiritual, in their way to embrace it, to lead a moving to lay hands on others just based on a personal knowing with no spiritual backing. But with a moving to release, they could freely give what they move in; whether of God or not, it truly will not be seen in that plan to give based on what the receiver hopes for.

As it has been known, demons can live in true Kingdom movings in the people of God. They will not be in the person's spirit with the Great Holy Spirit, yet a true way can be given where a demon is dwelling in a body of a believer in King Jesus. "Does that mean you are not in the Kingdom?" Now, here is where the people must truly see that a human is made of three parts: body, soul, and spirit. Demons will move in the body, while the Holy Spirit lives in the person's spirit.

Now, how can witches know of details? It is through the drinking they take in through demon influences. They will also receive reports from demons not in their body, telling them of what is taking place in various details, places, and people. Witches will also be able to leave their body, to move in the unseen with just their spirit, to move in bringing curses, or to see what is moving in the plan of another. Witches will take over other humans and have a way in their bodies, to move in doing details to bring harm to that person or to another.

Most will not take this detail due to being afraid to truly know this is the way of that detail. A true servant of the Great King will be given ways to leave their body, to travel in the unseen with the approval only in the plan given by the Great Way in each detail. This form of spirit travel must only be done at the will given through the Great Way King Jesus. The purpose for which a true servant of King Jesus may be given a way to do this is to build a Kingdom will, not to move in any detail not pleasing to the Great Way King Jesus.

Witches will serve Satan and his demons, to move in bringing a will to kill, steal, and destroy. The devil is a true liar, and those who serve him have been given a level of authority in using Satan's power to do a sinful detail. Christians move to be deceived in thinking that there is no true detail in power in Satan's camp. Why would the devil be able to recruit so many into witchcraft if they were not deceived into thinking there is real authority in the way they serve him? His plan in bringing in more Satanists is to fill them with greater demons, which would make it seem to that person as if they move in true authority to make others do what they would will. But if they would truly see that they are being used by the demons, they would see that there truly is no profit in serving Satan.

How did Satan ever come to be in the first place? He is truly a created being who once was a beautiful angel of great rank in the King's will. But Satan wanted to be God and was found with pride in his heart; and along with other angels who chose to do what Satan willed, they were thrown out of the Heaven that they were created to serve in. Satan, called the devil, once Lucifer, a beautiful creation, fell and took a new way in being the god of this earth. He moves as a lowercase god who is here on this earth with those angels, called demons, that were with him in the rebellion detail against the Great I AM.

Satan's plan is to kill, steal, and destroy. There is no truth in Satan. He is the great deceiver, and his will is to take as many souls into eternity in a way of full plan of eternal damnation of a deep way in separation from the One True God. So many are thirsty for a true moving, but they will taste anything. There must be a way to filter what goes into a church gathering, into a ministry, into a way in nation details to keep it from being influenced in a way of deep potency by the enemy of the Great Way King Jesus.

That is truly why you need a prophet who is given the spiritual planning in the government of the Great King Jesus, to move in bringing it into the earth, to move it to the plane where it will move to shift and change the earth's plan into moving in Kingdom influence in a positive way.
