

FEAR NO DEMON

Journal Entry

November 28, 2010

Great Holy Spirit:

I am here, Susanna. I am here with you. Don't be afraid. I am with you. Remember, no spirit is greater than the Spirit of God who lives in you. Do not be afraid. You have to learn what dreams are of God and what dreams are not of God. That one was not of God. Do not be afraid of them, Susanna. Do not be afraid of the unknown. Do not try to have a conversation with them either. I will help you discern which spirit is there. Do not be afraid because you cannot see them. It is just another realm. You will see both sides, Susanna. You will see both sides. Remember, you don't have to be loud or rude. Just speak My Words with boldness in My name. I am with you. I am protecting you. Soon, this will really be no big deal for you. I will not let them harm you, Susanna. I will not let them harm you. Know who you are in Christ, and remember that greater is He that is in you than he who is in the world. The Spirit of God is within you. I will never leave you, Susanna. It is different when you are experiencing things like this than when you read about it. Do not be afraid of the unknown. I have given you authority. Yes, the supernatural world has been alerted. Don't think that you can be a prophet and no one will know. It is known, Susanna. It is known. Remember, greater is He who is in you. Susanna, no demon is stronger than Me. No demon. No one is stronger than Me. I will not allow anything to happen to you that is out of My control. These are lessons. The lessons have begun. There are more to come. You will see both sides, Susanna. You will see both sides. You cannot be afraid. Stay pure, Susanna. Stay pure so that the only thing bringing on these lessons is Me. I will guide you through this phase to where the unseen realm is second nature. I am with you. I know, Susanna. I know. You enjoy the peace that comes with being in Me. There are many who are not able to enjoy My peace. I am with you through these lessons. It's okay, Susanna. It's okay. And you thought of that vision I showed you with the lion and the kitty cat—with the lion afraid of the kitty cat. Know who you are in Christ from your heart. And remember, I will never leave you. Aren't you glad to know ahead of time lessons were coming? Yes, Susanna, you know, and you are ready. Don't let fear rule in your heart. Stay close to Me.

Get deeper in the Word, Susanna. Get deeper. You are already known in the spirit realm because of My power that is going to flow through you. Angels have been assigned to you. The enemy is on alert—not that that would matter too much anyway. That is just for your knowledge. Yes, he knows that you are a prophet, that you are My mouthpiece, and that I have sent you to do serious damage to the kingdom of darkness. My power flowing through you is going to do serious damage to the kingdom of darkness, and it is being made known. There has been a shift in the supernatural realm. Susanna, you will start to sense more soon. You will start to feel it. You will feel it in the atmosphere. You will feel it in your spirit. You will feel it in the things that you do and say. Don't be afraid to come to Me for answers, Susanna, about anything. If you have any questions or you don't understand something, come to Me. Don't try to figure it out on your own, thinking that you are bothering Me. I am your Teacher. Seek My advice. Seek My counsel. No matter how many times you have to come to Me, Susanna. Don't count that. I am not keeping score. Just come to Me when you have any questions. Don't be afraid to share your heart with Me. I already see your heart. I just don't want you to be afraid to share it with Me. Susanna, demons are in classes. Right now, you are learning to deal with the ones that the average person has to deal with. People are tormented often due to their lifestyles—that they have given over their lives to the enemy. You are learning to deal with these. Even the greatest of demons, so to speak, is as the smallest in My eyes. No power is greater than Mine, for I created them, yet this is not how I created them to be. They are fallen angels because of rebellion against Me. They chose to serve their master, Satan, also a created being. He is just an angel who has fallen, and now he is a demon. His so-called power is not really power. He is being used to fulfill My will. I have him on a short leash, so to speak. He thinks he has power of his own ability, just as people think they have their own power to do their own thing. No, I know what's going to happen before it does. I know the whole plan. That's why I can say he is on a short leash even though he wishes more. He is on a short leash. No power is over My power. No authority is over My authority. Have no fear, Susanna. Stay with Me. Stay under My covering. Stay under My wings. The supernatural realm has been alerted. The angels are ready to perform My Word. All prophets have to go through this, Susanna, where they are able to go in and out of the supernatural realm. What I am doing through you is not any different. Yes, prophets are given different levels of authority based on the mission I have given them. Based on the purpose I have for them determines how much power they will have. Yes, this is the sphere of influence. Not all prophets have the same realm of influence. Some only deal in churches. Some deal in their city. Some cover a nation. Others are sent to nations. You are sent to nations, Susanna. You understand your calling. You are just trying to figure out how it will happen. I will show you, in time, step by step. If I show you too much, it could overwhelm you. Look, you are still trying to figure out how you will go to other countries, where the wealth will come in from. I am taking care of these details. I am, Susanna. They are coming in My timing. Things are falling in line. This training is very important. You must be able to face the different levels of demonic activity, whether it is over a person's life or over a nation, where you have to share with the leader what's going on. This is why it is crucial that you speak only what I tell you to speak. Do not dabble in the unknown. Do not venture out on your own. It could be dangerous. Stay under My covering. Oh, yes, you will soon start to see more. The lessons will build. You are already starting to sense more. Be careful what you share. Be careful. A lot of things are not meant for others to know; they are just between you and Me. Be ready. Be prepared. I believe you are understanding how important these lessons are. Yes, angels will come to you and deliver messages. Do not focus on this as others have done in their ministry. Never take the focus off of Jesus. The Lord must always be first. You have an angelic guard with you, ready to do My will, ready to perform My Word. But remember, no spirit is greater than the Holy Spirit. They are here to serve Me by ministering unto you. They are here to do My will. Soon, more will be made known to you. I want you to get some rest now. We will talk more later. Yes, your husband is awake. Go back to sleep, Susanna. I love you. Read this later.

Susanna:

Yes, Lord. Thank You for Your counsel and for being with me. Thank You for taking me through these lessons and never leaving me. I love You.
