Susanna:

Dear Lord, please share Your heart with me. I long to hear Your heart. I long to connect with You in a deeper more intimate way. Would You like to talk? I am listening. But if You want me to do something, I will. But I long to be close to You. I want You.

Great Holy Spirit:

You are starting to see more clearly, Susanna. You are seeing people's hearts because I am starting to show them to you. Don't judge. Stay pure. When you see the things that I show you, find out what I want you to do next. Don't try and force My Spirit to come, Susanna. You don't have to. I am with you. You want so much more of Me. You are so hungry. Stay hungry for Me. Stay hungry for the supernatural, where you sense My manifested presence. Stay hungry for Me, for My Spirit. I want to show you more. I will show you more. Stay with Me, Susanna. Stay close to Me. Don't go to that event tomorrow night. It is a waste of time. Susanna, you have so much work to do. That music has to go out. It must go out this week, Susanna. I will show you who to send it to. Susanna, things are different. Don't second-guess, and don't apologize when I tell you to say something. You did not do these things, but you thought about it. That's why I had to tell you more than once to give _____ that message about the song. You waited because you wanted it to end first, yet in your heart you didn't know if you had the authority to say that. But you do. You have the authority to speak My Words, but only speak what I tell you to. Speak the Words that I give you to say without fear of man, wondering what people will think of you. That is not important—if people think you are such and such a way. My Words may seem hard to you because I want you to know how crucial it is for you to obey Me without second-guessing, without wondering about protocol. You must obey Me. You must obey Me the first time. When you hear Me tell you to do something, and I tell you what to do, and I give you the timing, do it at the moment I tell you to.

Remember, Susanna, great authority, great responsibility. Lukewarm leaders. My heart is breaking over these leaders—those who say they love Me, but their heart shows something else. My heart is breaking. Do not be afraid, Susanna. Do not be afraid of the authority, of who you are in Christ. Do not be afraid of it. Go ahead and get your crying done now. Weep because you are rejected so that you can move on and do My will. Be done with it, Susanna. Be done with it. Accept that you will be rejected. Accept it now so that when you see it full force, you will not run and hide. Weep now, Susanna. You will be rejected. Jesus was rejected. Are you greater than your Lord? Are you greater than prophets before you? To the people, no. In My sight, you are worth so much because you are Mine. I paid a great price for you. Weep now, Susanna. The time has come for you to move forward. Be done with this. You will be rejected for My name's sake. It is okay. I am with you. Weep now. Embrace the office. Embrace the suffering that comes with the office. Embrace the sacrifice. Embrace it, Susanna. You cannot be like the others. Serve Me. Serve Me to death. Serve Me to your cross, to your moment of suffering when you are rejected. I am not talking about physical death, Susanna. I am talking about when you are rejected for My name's sake. What if _____ wasn't humble? How would you have felt about giving her the message? Would you still be close to her now? Would you be upset, hurt? Don't look for the approval, sways of man, if they approve the Word or not approve the Word. Don't follow that to know if you are on-key. Follow Me. Tune in to Me. Only do what I tell you to do. Say My message to the people. Say My message. Weep now, Susanna, so that when the time comes for rejection, you will not run and hide, but that you will still declare My Word across the land. Weep now.

Susanna:

I am trying, Lord, but nothing is coming out.

Great Holy Spirit:

Good, Susanna. Good. Are you finished dwelling on the rejection part? Are you done with this, wondering how people will respond to you? Let's move on. Let's move on. Set your eyes on Me. Set your focus on Me, on doing My will. Set your focus on Me. I am with you. Embrace it, Susanna. Embrace it. Don't be shy. Be bold. Speak for Me with boldness. Don't say what I tell you to say timidly; say it with boldness. You don't have to be rude or loud. Just say what I tell you to say with boldness. Don't try and force anything on anyone. Don't expect praises or approval. Look to Me. Know who you are in Christ. Walk in the Spirit and not in the flesh. Know who your true enemies are, who you are really fighting against. Don't walk in the flesh. This is why I want you to see more so you can see what's really going on. I want you to see more, Susanna. You will. I will show you more. Stay close to Me. Don't go ahead of Me. Stay close to Me. Yes, you see it. Stay in My shadow. Stay in My will. I am your Companion, Susanna. I am with you. As things get harder—the spiritual warfare, Susanna, I will show you how to fight. I will show you. Are you ready? There's so much more to come, Susanna. This is just the beginning. You will experience a lot. You will experience a lot for Me. Some, you will understand. Some, you will not. As a last day's prophet, expect to be scorned. Expect to be ridiculed. Expect to be mistreated. Expect to not be liked. But even in the midst of all this, My power will flow through you in such a powerful way that there will be no denying that I am with you, that you are My prophet. There will be no denying because of the work I have called you to do will come to pass by My mighty hand. There will be no denying that you are Mine. Finish strong, Susanna. Finish the race strong. Endure to the end. It is worth it, Susanna. It is worth it. All of the things you will go through for Me will be worth it. Stay close to Me. Are you ready, Susanna? Are you ready? I am ready to perform My Word. Watch and see as I perform My Word. Do you want to do something else right now?

Susanna:

I believe I want to process what You're saying. Please show me more so I can process more. I am ready for my lessons—at least I think I am. But You know best, Lord. I want to walk in Your authority that You have given me for this work. I want to walk in Your anointing—all in boldness. Oh, Lord, please reveal more to me.

Great Holy Spirit:

I will, Susanna. I will. Do not be afraid. Be My mouthpiece. Speak for Me. Boldness, Susanna, without fear of man. No other gods before Me, and that includes man. I want you to wear your hair like this tomorrow. Yes, with the twists. Get over yourself. It is not about your looks. I made you beautiful. I have given you beautiful hair. Be proud of the way you look by affirming what I have done. This will bring a release within you. You thought about it earlier—about doing it, but then you changed your mind. You are beautiful. Wear your hair however you would like it, but wear it the way I told you for tomorrow. Do not be ashamed of your hair texture, how I've made you, your beauty. It's okay, Susanna. I believe you understand what I am saying. Tomorrow is a "twist" day. No more fear of man, Susanna, in any area of your life. Tomorrow, breakthrough. Breakthrough in the spirit realm. Breakthrough for you. You are beautiful, Susanna. Everything about you is beautiful. I made you this way for a reason. You will see soon.
