

YAHWEH ADDRESSES THE ANGRY, WOUNDED PROPHET

Part Two

SEERSGATE says:

Prophets of today—most—are under a church house, under a pastor that has trained them in their ways of prophet order. Most church prophets are not under senior prophets where they can learn how to walk forward in the character and traits of the office. A prophet should not be trained to cater to the will of the pastor unless they are under that house, in which the pastor's governing authority takes a leading plan. Here is a clearer understanding: A prophet in the church may have a spiritual way of allowance from their pastor to give a word of the Lord and have the backing that gives a sharing. Usually, the pastor is a friend of the prophet, sharing their own personal ways with each other. Here is what can be seen as a dangerous plan: can the pastor take an order from the prophet if Yahweh wants to give a clearing out of the current order of the church? Most are afraid to tell a friend that there is a sin that needs to be dealt with.

YAHWEH speaks:

I know people need proof of your work. Keep telling their way of this work.

SEERSGATE says:

Yes, Yahweh.

How would a prophet under a local church house give Yahweh's plan and not fear losing the pastor as a friend? This order of work is where experiential instructional training comes forward. And a novice prophet is not fully aware of how to follow protocol and when to yield to the local house if there are no training outlines in the order of giving a message. I grew up in a house of pastors.

Both my dad and stepdad were pastors, and my mother was a worship leader. I learned of the many different ways of church culture, yet in all of my church attendance, I did not gain a clear understanding of the duties of a prophet.

YAHWEH speaks:

Did that make you a better prophet, being in the house of pastors? How could it? Yahweh had to bring you a way of seeing what was not in joined culture ways with local church outlets.

SEERSGATE says:

Most of today's prophets or prophetic voices declare and decree what they are not granted to say in the name of the Lord. Most prophets who carry that title have an "I felt God said this" attitude concerning hearing the word of the Lord and would take one word they hear and embellish on what that could mean for this time and age.

When the former president T____ p ran for office, Yahweh showed me some of that leader's character flaws, not to have me share them, but to help me see the underlying motive to having that nature in the office. After the election between T____ p and the current leader, I watched how the prophets spoke of T____ p and how he would win. And Yahweh told me clearly that He would prefer the lesser of the evils. I wondered what that would relate to, and Yahweh made it clear that a man who is not teachable cannot govern well or submit to governing authority from any other. And that way of submission would extend from a world leader or a church pastor.

YAHWEH has a sharing:

Yahweh would not pick a person based on what the people see as better. Yahweh goes by heart actions and looks at the heart to see if they would bend under Yahweh's power.

SEERSGATE says:

That is clearly understood, Your plan. Thank You, Yahweh.

The status a prophet holds doesn't matter. And that is what I had to learn under Yahweh's plan. I could not go into a person's spiritual or natural house and tell them what to do. Here is an example: Yahweh would say to tell that person this or that. I would tell that person that Yahweh wants to tell them something, and then they would have a choice as to if they wanted to hear it or not. I could not force sharing Yahweh's will. I could not beg that person to bend and accept it. I had to be willing to share what Yahweh would give and then know that the house order would have the right to stop it or allow what I was told to say. And Yahweh would not hold me accountable if the hearer refused to hear the message. Yahweh would decide what would take way after that attempted delivery. This way of following Yahweh's Kingdom order is to respect the house.

How can Yahweh's plan go forward when the prophets are afraid to share what Yahweh gives? I have dealt with thirty years of novice training, and rarely could I be myself, fully transparent. Yahweh started to give great spiritual treats and would encourage me with personal prophetic words from those with a small enablement to see a portion of what I am given in Yahweh. I share these notes not to bring glory to me but to help you understand that the ways the prophets are trained today are based on a teacher/pastor format and not on understanding Kingdom protocol and order. And since I have lived in this way of training, Yahweh says that my life examples can enable others to understand that being a prophet is not what they may see on Television. If people would realize that Yahweh is the God I AM who still speaks today, would there be a revival? Would there be a turning to the One True God? I ponder what I write.

Why share my personal life, how Yahweh demands the harsh ways of servitude? Find me a prophet in Scripture that resembles the "prophetic voices" that stand on many stages. In the old days, the people usually did not love the prophet. Prophets were honored but rarely were they accepted. Find me a prophet in the Old or New Testament who required the backing of a human clay to say that the message is really from God. What must happen? Yahweh must back His prophets and train them to say His will without fear of a person. And if the people would understand that not only does love stem from Yahweh but also other traits such as judgment and order, there would be an understanding that judgment must come before a gathering event.

YAHWEH is speaking:

I cannot let My Bride go forward with so much hate and dispute. Most people claim to be Christian, yet they have no real understanding of the nature of how Christians are to walk in. I need to weigh them, judge them, and bring a new order to local houses.

SEERSGATE shares more:

Yahweh must look at how the people live and gather. Yahweh must look at how the church folks merge secular ways with Kingdom order to beg the people to be in His presence. What must happen? Yahweh must have voices in the earth who are not under the church culture, those who have a Kingdom perspective and are willing to bring forward Yahweh's plan without fear. Look at every major shift in Yahweh's plan. Wasn't there a select few who had to be separated for that new plan? Their mentality could not stem from the plans of the ones who were to be governed or delivered.

You would understand loneliness, pain, and rejection when you cannot prove to anyone that you hear the God of the universe say anything. Why? Parts of the church outlets do not agree that prophets are around today and say that only those mentioned in the Bible can qualify as prophets. Another mark against me is that I am a woman, and some church streams would say that women cannot speak and lead over men regarding church order. In some other church outlets, the very act of claiming that you hear the God of the Bible speak today would automatically brand you as a heretic.

I AM gives a quick way of understanding Kingdom ruling:

Seersgate, you may be seen as a heretic, but speak Yahweh's will. Do not cower. But if Yahweh has a work He needs to bring forward, would He not back it? Just as the Early Church apostles dealt with, weren't they persecuted for telling others about a Kingdom culture that gave a new way to come to Yahweh? The new way to come into Kingdom order overruled the local placed-in rituals and governing authority. King Jesus took on the plan as Mediator between God and all mankind. And the way We have you live in this Kingdom plan is as a covering over all dispensations given in the time, natural-based, so that Yahweh's Kingdom culture will rule.

SEERSGATE states where she stands:

I stand and say that I am called to the office of a prophet; I hear the God of the Bible speak word-for-word just as any other did in the times of old. I understand that this saying will label me a heretic with most churches, for to say that Yahweh speaks that way is to say that there is new revelation, given as if more Bible Scriptures are written today. Still, prophetic voices are saying God says this or that and are excused in some circles due to their saying that they FELT LED to say something, to give them a clearance when making a prophetic mistake.

See where Yahweh places people like me? Outside of the many groups of the Christian church ordered structure so I can tell His will and not sway to a local house and bend. Yahweh gives me training ways through local and international preachers to glean from, for no one is above being taught anything. And this helps me to learn how to balance within all the streams of the Christian faith, gleaning the needed training while throwing away a cultural house trait that will not determine my eternal living.

Here is another point to note: Yahweh grants spheres of influence and has taught me that there are no major and minor prophets, nor does He give delegated governing just by a natural way such as what is taught by others. And here is where the person will say that I have a pride and ego plan by stating that a world-level sphere of influence is granted. And that would explain the thirty years of novice training endured. A significant part of that training is given in my book The Altar, a compilation of journal entries and conversations with my God during my wilderness timing.

I plan to make it clear that Yahweh has been faithful, and I cannot imagine Paul stating that he enjoyed the hardship and the pain dealt with, the suffering for the Gospel. Yes, he loved Yahweh and willingly gave his servitude to Him, yet I cannot fathom that Paul would want to say he had joy in the thorn in his side. Just as Paul suffered, Yahweh told me that I would have a cross of continual rejection due to how He wants me to declare a new era, the Age of the Antichrist.

I want to train prophets on the good and the downside of the office. Presented prophets are no longer in the Cave training and have dealt with various levels of spiritual stripping to have a well-rounded understanding that only what Yahweh says is to be spoken, not a personal embellishment to make a person feel good. And those true prophets of Yahweh are presented in their finished form, already given a final impartation for office work.

And here is what I now can see in the churches: prophetic leaders walking around with a prophet title while having no spiritual license or enablement to carry out the office. Some rely on their redemptive and spiritual gifts to share words. I heard a false prophet tell people things that a demon would say and call it prophetic; and the people rejoiced in hearing the false words. The office prophet and one who operates in the gift of prophecy are not the same. And here, the people are declaring and decreeing what they have no license to give. A true prophet should only state what they hear from Yahweh and give that as the plan to declare in the earth. See how that way of thinking is different than most would do today?

Let me share a little more of a back-story as to why I use older photos here. Yahweh tells me to do so because I never valued myself due to all the verbal, emotional, physical, and sexual abuse endured throughout my growing up. The pain I dealt with stemmed from the long office preparation (thirty years) and the scars from the years of abuse. I thought I was worth nothing. And Yahweh had to retrain my way of thinking. And then I could not fit in with the Black or the White race, for each side would have me torn into thinking I had to pick a side to fit in.

Yahweh now wants to use my fleshly clay tent as a sign and bring forward my Norwegian and Asian heritages hidden under my African presentation. Being a woman of multiple races places me in a strategic plan to comfortably engage all races due to not wanting to take a side with any. Nor would I vote for any leader based on the color of their skin. I want Yahweh's Kingdom order to lead. So, that's a little understanding of why Yahweh would force that, sharing photos of myself.

And so, now I will share more about the weight gain. Yahweh equates the gaining of natural weight as a symbolism of the gaining of spiritual junk that clogs the system. The hearing and the spiritual discipline have weaned off, and I have to take many seasons of refreshing to come under Kingdom order. My anger with Yahweh in previous ways is not now within me, for Yahweh has dealt with me and brought an understanding as to why His way is hard with me.

SPIRITUAL TREATS

Let me share some beautiful treats with you to encourage you to see the other side of the training. Just a few notes are shared. I had a compelling encounter with King Jesus. In a dream, we were sitting across from each other, and He touched my hands. I could envision Him in the dream as if He was in front of me, giving a smile of encouragement. And from that dream in Alaska, I received an impartation from His hands to do His work. Another encounter: I was playing a triangle domino game with my husband. And I was feeling doubtful due to all of the changes and revisions that Yahweh gave in the work. I thought at that time that nothing would happen and that maybe I should give up and ask God for a way out.

I was desperate for some form of proof to myself that I was on course. I heard Yahweh tell me to pick up a specific piece on the table. And I did so, which in turn was not based on luck and gave me a great advantage. It was impossible to guess the right piece due to the many pieces there. And Yahweh told me to tell my husband what He did so that the points gained would be removed from my score since Yahweh showed me which piece to pick up solely as training and for encouragement (The pieces are face down, and no one can see what they are picking up ahead of time.) I knew Yahweh cared. And Yahweh then told me that He could see everything and hear every thought and knows the inner workings of my body, and not worry. Something that light of a gesture was all I needed since I did not have an active, released mantle.

So many treats and levels of engagement I dealt with, but that's not what keeps me. Hearing Yahweh say that He is well pleased is the most crucial plan to hear. And with a prophet's heart, I believe that others will understand why being transparent with Yahweh is the most important plan.

When you are angry, state it, and let Yahweh help you. When you don't understand and want to follow Yahweh, talk to Him about it. When you are in pain or when someone hurts you, don't pretend you have it all together. Let's heal and be real when there are issues that need to be dealt with.

The contentment in being a prophet is the winning of souls. And my anger and frustration with Yahweh were with how I felt that I didn't need thirty years of training to help others. But let us make a point clear: a prophet's calling is not pushed forward until Yahweh prepares the prophet to engage that level of spiritual warfare. If I were to govern outlets as a church prophet, my training would have lasted a shorter time frame. If Yahweh called me to a city or nation-level work, my training would have still taken on a different plan than a church prophet. But Yahweh has other prophets in His Kingdom work, but there can only be one world-level prophet due to the level of work granted.

What does He say of my plan of work? Preach the Kingdom and prepare the world for the return of Christ. Yahweh also states that He wants healing rooms built all over, around the world. Yahweh also wants to show me how to shift governments and bring Kingdom order on the earth. How many Kingdom workers will stand with someone who says that the government must take on a different way of presentation to be a pleasing way to Yahweh? See it? That's why the outlet of work stems from a layout of a reformation prophet. What is Yahweh bringing reform to? The church outlets and the governments of the world, preparing the whole world for the return of Christ.

I am now ending my transition and will start my ten-year mantle training as a world-level prophet. I am here on social media outlets like this one for a short plan to share an introduction to what Yahweh brings. If Yahweh does push His plan forward and would slay irreverent ones who come too close to His presence on my mantle, would you want to work with me? What if Yahweh had healing rooms built that would eradicate cancer and other forms of sickness and disease? Would there be a place to hide from the public? And if you were to be a part of that work, would you have a plan to financially support all the hospital workers out of a job because Yahweh brought down the economy? Do you know how much money is made by hospitals and cancer centers? When Yahweh brings His way of Kingdom order to that extent, what happens to the economy?

See how this way of training is not a declare and decree work? It's actual Kingdom order, pushing Yahweh's plan into natural outlets to prepare for the return of Christ. I have no proof of this calling and level of work, but that's how my life has been while under a thirty-year novice presentation. And that is okay.

I want to encourage you to stand with Yahweh and not try to defend what He gives you to do. Be obedient and respect the local house you visit or connect to under Kingdom work. As a world-level prophet, I am not granted that plan to sit under a local house due to the purpose brought forward, yet when I enter a local house, I will respect their order and not think that I am superior to others. What has Yahweh also given me? A plan to train the Bride of Christ on a world-level plan, to bring forward a union that caters to Kingdom order.

Part three of the introduction notes of the angry, wounded prophet are already given from Yahweh and will be shared soon. Thank you for your time.
